Dear Ms. Fear,

This letter is to confirm that as a religious organization, Episcopal Charities of Southeast Florida (ECSEFL) is not required to obtain a Certificate of Solicitation from the Florida Dept. of Agriculture.

As stated in the Florida Solicitation of Contributions Act, this requirement does not apply to bona fide religious or educational institutions.

In addition, as a subordinate organization of the exempt Diocese of Southeast Florida, ECSEFL is likewise exempt from IRS Form 990 filing.

Please feel free to contact me for any additional information.

Sincerely yours,

Dayton Van Houten
